

Fletcher Collective Boarder Contract

In addition to actively following the boarding member's outlined rights and responsibilities throughout the duration of their membership, a boarder's contract is contingent on the house receiving one of two payment options. Please indicate below which of the following payment options you are interested in by placing a mark next to either option:

- A. A Boarding Fee of $100
- B. Boarding Fee of $80 + 3 hours of house labor per week

The Boarding Fee is due to the Fletcher Collective's Treasurer on a monthly basis in order to maintain the validity of this contract. Payment should be received in full by the 25th of the month prior (Ex. Pay by June 25th in order to be a boarder for July).

For those boarders who have selected payment option "B":
Labor completed by a boarder will not fall outside of food and kitchen related tasks and will be coordinated by the house's current work manager. Please indicate below all labor that you feel you would be able to complete:

- Kitchen cleaning
- Cook weekly meal
- Cupboard & refrigerator cleaning, floor mopping & Bulk food container refilling
- GUFF food preparation
- Volunteering at the People's Food Coop.

Rights and Responsibilities:

Boarders will have the right to:

- Enter the house at appropriate hours of the day or night in order to access the kitchen
- Eat GUFF food and use the available appliances, dishes, etc. to prepare personal meals
- Use common space to enjoy their meals
- Eat house dinners prepared by Fletcher Collective members
- Attend house meetings when issues pertaining to food are discussed
- Vote on and discuss food-related issues in house meetings
- Expect that the house will provide a safe environment and have their own individual rights and expectations met by other house members

Boarders will have the responsibility to:

- Clean up all dishes and appliances used in the preparation or consumption of their meal
- Prepare food only for themselves (no cooking for others and taking the food to them / inviting them over to eat it at Fletcher)
- Follow all house rules and policies, including the "Safe Space" list generated by members
